

Emergency Preparedness: Health Skills Practice: Accessing Information

Directions: Getting information about storms and natural disasters is the best way to be prepared for these kinds of emergencies. Knowing where to find reliable information saves time when severe weather or a natural disaster is about to happen. Answer the questions below to help you gather this information. You may use the internet or the Health Textbook, Chapter 27, Lesson 4, to find the answers.

Your email address (jessika.kazaros@ocps.net) will be recorded when you submit this form. Not jessika.kazaros? Sign out

* Required

1. First Name ***

---

2. Last Name ***

---

3. Class Period ***

Mark only one oval.

1st Period

2nd Period

3rd Period

5th Period

6th Period

7th Period

4. List the radio stations in your area that provide in-depth weather coverage and disaster information. ***

---

---

---

---

---

5. List the television stations in your area that provide in-depth weather coverage. ***

---

---

---

---

---

6. List Internet sites that provide weather radar, storm watch and warning information, school and business closings, and emergency information for your area. For each site listed, tell what information it provides. ***

---

---

---

---

---

7. List the non-emergency telephone numbers for the sheriff's department and police department. ***

---

---

---

---

---

8. List the telephone numbers of the places your family members can be found during the day, such as work or school. ***

---

---

---

---

---

9. List other sources of weather and evacuation information for your community. Be sure to include their telephone numbers. ***

---

---

---

---

---

A copy of your responses will be emailed to jessika.kazaros@ocps.net